

Here is the June 5 chapter of the GLI-full news breeze

I haven't been feeling all that breezy. They decided to wait until June to rebuild the air conditioning in my apartment building and it gets pretty hot in here. I do not do well in heat. So I feel a bit sluggish these days. But I keep going.

The June 5 debrief from Winnipeg has come and gone. It is a qualified success. We got six people out. One is very small; a future BI/GLI activist. We had someone from the Hamilton group in attendance.

I will write up some notes about it for next week. Robyn handed out some of her materials. I passed out my list of URLs to information on BI as well as to the video recordings of the presentations at both the Winnipeg 2016 and Montreal 2014 congresses, which I will paste below.

I prepared a short power point type presentation on it as well. Robyn brought her projector.

Things are getting more active in Toronto and area. It is getting hard to keep track of it. We continue Robyn's series every two weeks at Riverdale health. (955 Queen street east at 1:30 to 3:30, June 16 Thursday.) We have the BITO group now meeting third tuesday of each month but with no permanent location.

We have a meeting at Hamilton city hall on the 15th, so we can see how things are going down there. Info at <https://www.facebook.com/events/506604652867920/> And finally, on the 29th, we have the debate between John Clarke and Jo Grey about Basic Income at Metro hall.

Another interesting event worth reserving a spot for,

June 16: Workplace Democracy for the 21st Century:
http://www.broadbentinstitute.ca/workplace\_democracy\_for\_the\_21st\_century

Being organized by the Broadbent institute.
